His Father then gave him another Book of Lessons, and here they are.

The LION Lesson.

When you play with a Lion take care of his Paw.

A Man who had bought a Lion for a Show, and put him into a Hutch, bid his Son come to him; Tom, says he, I charge you not to go near this Place, for if you do this Beast will kill you; so he a good Boy, Tom, and do as I bid you. Yes, Pappa, said the Boy; but he did not do as he

The HORSE Lesson

When you play with a Horse, take his Heels.

A Boy who was at School, ran a Horse that was in the Field; upon one of his Friends, who was older a than he, told him not to go near the for he would kick. But Sam was
